Dear Parents/Carers,

National Literacy Trust Workshop – How to Read Together as a Family in Early Years.

The National Literacy Trust are a charity working with schools and communities to give children the literacy skills needed to succeed in life. They have developed this workshop to promote ideas to encourage early years reading, develop phoneme awareness to support children's ability to listen to sounds and family involvement. Also, to help develop a positive reading culture that promotes a love of words, stories and reading.

This is an opportunity to learn some fantastic ways to develop young children's love of reading and phoneme awareness, while also developing their communication and language skills.

The session will look at how to engage with quality texts, how to promote good reading skills, phoneme awareness and how to make reading a fun and enjoyable way to spend time as a family.

Date: Tuesday 8th October 2024

Venue: Bonham Gym

Time: 9.00-9.45am

I look forward to seeing you and working with you at this workshop. Unfortunately, no children will be able to attend this workshop.

Kind Regards,

Miss Vines and Mrs Guyatt

I/We will/will not be attending the NLT workshop on the 8th October 2024 at 9.00am
